

Seminar Series on Critical Legal Theory

Friday 4 December at 2.30pm
University of Roma Tre - Law School, Room 5,
Via Ostiense 159 - 161

“CRITICAL LEGAL THEORY AND THE ‘PUBLIC/PRIVATE LAW’ DISTINCTION: WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO SUSTAIN A POLITICS OF A LOST DISTINCTION?”

EMILIOS CHRISTODOULIDIS, Chair of Jurisprudence, University of Glasgow

Discussants:

MASSIMO BRUTTI
University of Rome “La Sapienza”

MARIA ROSARIA MARELLA
University of Perugia

Round table:

GIUSEPPE BRONZINI
Italian Court of Cassation
EMANUELE CONTE
University of Roma Tre

FIONA MACMILLAN
Birkbeck, University of London
GIOVANNI MARINI
University of Perugia
ENRICA RIGO
University of Roma Tre

For further information please contact the organisers:

E. Rigo, enrica.rigo@uniroma3.it - M. R. Marella, maria.marella@unipg.it - F. Macmillan, f.macmillan@bbk.ac.uk