Event organised by:

EUI Law Department

■ ABSTRACT

This conference brings back to the EUI some of its professorial alumni. It is an occasion to discuss the direction(s) legal scholarship should take and how the EUI and its researchers should orient their endeavours. It is organised in the following way: after a short introduction to the first 40 years of the EUI by the serving Head of Department, session 1 explores transnational economic law and session 2 discusses a range of topics in the theory of law. The final roundtable session is an occasion for discussion on the role EUI should play in legal scholarship & the development of the Doctoral Programme
