THE ITALIAN BRAIBANTI AFFAIRE: A TALE OF TWO VULNERABILITIES

THURSDAY, APRIL 22 | 5:00PM PST | ON ZOOM

The Chair of Italian Culture at the University of California, Berkeley, was established in 1928, wholly with contributions made by residents of California who were mindful of the ever-vital cultural heritage with which Italy has for so long enriched the world. It allows the Department to invite “the ablest and most eminent citizens of Italy” to lecture and teach in illustration and interpretation of Italian culture.
