

TAHR - Thinking and Acting on Human Rights: an Ongoing History.

An Italian-Brazilian International Workshop

Innovative projects within the framework of International Cooperation Agreements 2025 - P.I. Prof. Serena Vantin
In collaboration with Gruppo di Lavoro FiSDU - Filosofie e Storie dei Diritti Umani

Workshop 1: Genealogies of Human Rights

15-16 April 2026 | UNICAMP | Sala Multiuso - Educart

Link: <https://meet.google.com/fcc-kvwh-ecj>

Wednesday, 15th April 2026

10.00am - 12.30pm BRT / 15.00 - 17.30 CET

Keynote speech: Serena Vantin (Unibo), In the Shadow of the French Revolution. Women's Rights in Late Eighteenth-Century Italy

Discussion

Keynote speech: Sarah Bonfirm (Unicamp), The French Revolution and the Vindication of Women's Rights. From Europe to Brazil

Discussion

Thursday, 16th April 2026

10.00am - 12.30pm BRT / 15.00 - 17.30 CET - Roundtable "A Focus on Method"

Histories and Languages. Human Rights and New Narratives

Yara Adario Frateschi (Unicamp), Vinicius de Carvalho (King's College of London),
Andreia Guerini (UFSC), Monica Lupetti (Unipi), Vinicius Santana (Unicamp)

Discussion

1.30pm - 2.30pm BRT / 18.30 - 19.30 CET - Focus Group

Debate and free discussion on ongoing research with PhD students from Unicamp and Unibo

PhD students from the Department of Philosophy at Unibo and from the Instituto de Filosofia e Ciências Humanas at Unicamp are especially invited to take part. Participation is free.

For further information: serena.vantin3@unibo.it

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA | DEPARTMENT
OF PHILOSOPHY

FiSDU
filosofie e storie
dei diritti umani